The Municipality of Strathroy-Caradoc and the Township of Adelaide Metcalfe Adopt an Interim Servicing Agreement

October 27, 2025 – Strathroy ON - The Municipalities of Strathroy-Caradoc and Adelaide Metcalfe adopt an interim servicing agreement for the shared provision of water, wastewater and stormwater management services.

“This is a significant step forward for the Municipality of Strathroy-Caradoc and the Township of Adelaide-Metcalfe” stated Strathroy-Caradoc Mayor Colin Grantham. “Our strengthened relationship will result in future opportunities for our area collectively.”

The Municipality of Strathroy-Caradoc and the Township of Adelaide Metcalfe have entered into an Interim Servicing Agreement that reinforces their shared commitment to collaboration, growth, and community prosperity.

The Agreement clearly outlines the respective roles and responsibilities of each municipality, including the designation of the Owners and Operating Authority for the provision and maintenance of water and wastewater public utilities. By modernizing this framework, both municipalities are ensuring reliable and coordinated service delivery for current and future residents and businesses.

This partnership strengthens the economic foundation of the area and creates the conditions necessary for sustainable and thoughtful development. By working together, Strathroy-Caradoc and Adelaide Metcalfe are better positioned to attract new investment across industrial and commercial sectors stimulating job creation, supporting local business growth, and enhancing quality of life.

Beyond the immediate operational benefits, this coordinated approach enhances the area’s competitiveness and showcases both municipalities’ willingness to collaborate in the best interests of their shared communities. The Interim Servicing Agreement also provides a constructive pathway to resolve existing matters between the parties while laying the groundwork for a long-term servicing partnership that supports mutual growth and success.

“This agreement creates a path for both municipalities to grow and thrive together,” stated Mayor Sue Clarke. “It reinforces the spirit of partnership between our communities and signals to investors, businesses, and community members alike that Adelaide Metcalfe and Strathroy-Caradoc are open for business.”
